WHD Affiliation Summit 2016

Come train with the most senior students of Hanshi William H. Duessel during a two-day seminar in Pittsburgh. You will be given rare insight into Isshinryu Karate as it was practiced and taught by Hanshi William H. Duessel.

Presenters:

Hanshi Charles A. Wallace, 9th Dan

Kyoshi Thomas E. Laurent, 8th Dan

Kyoshi Marvin B. Prentice, 8th Dan

Renshi Kevin B. Kumpf, 6th Dan

Kyoshi Don Washabaugh, 8th Dan

Topics to be covered:

1. Stance Development Training – How to build your foundation from the ground up with an emphasis placed on the specifics of one's stances in relation to proper posture.
2. The Teaching of Kumite – How to safely and appropriately train yourself and your students using the six forms of kumite as well as other associated training drills to improve performance.
3. Chart I – The upper body techniques – The execution and application of Isshinryu's fundamental punching, blocking and chopping techniques as taught by William H. Duessel.
4. Chinto Kata and Bunkai – An in depth exploration of Chinto kata and all associated bunkai applied in a dynamic fashion.
5. Basics, Kata, and Kumite – Explore the interconnected nature of these forms of practice through the application of specific techniques as taught by Hanshi William H. Duessel.
6. Situational Self Defense – The secret scroll techniques as well as other situational self-defense techniques as taught by Hanshi William H. Duessel.
